

the UK's leading retail recruitment consultancy

About Us . . .

Imagine Recruitment are the UK's leading retail recruitment consultancy, with our consultants having strong backgrounds in retail and service sectors, delivering results throughout the UK. We are preferred supplier to many of the UK's top retailers, recruiting positions across Store Operations, HR, Distribution, Buying Functions and Merchandising.

Our Culture . . .

It is our mission to create added value and competitive advantage for all our clients, by delivering to their business truly exceptional people. We focus wholeheartedly on our clients' needs - adding value to their businesses, striving for excellence in everything we do and delivering on our promises.

We develop and motivate our people and reward their contribution, so they are equipped to deliver an exceptional service every time. We foster an entrepreneurial spirit that gives us the freedom to challenge conventional thinking and ways of working. We work with openness, integrity and humour to create an environment of trust and respect.

We create a dynamic, exciting and supportive business environment that embraces change to maintain our unique culture.

These are our commandments:

- >> honesty
- >> openness
- >> integrity
- >> passion
- >> delivery
- >> innovation
- >> progression
- >> dynamism
- >> dedication
- >> fulfilment

Our Approach . . .

We are proud and passionate about our business and its success. We source high calibre customer focused retail professionals who add style, passion, customer service and profit to our clients' brand.

We are strong relationship builders and we deliver the same level of service to everybody who interacts with us. The core values of Imagine are honesty, commitment, effective communication and delivery. Imagine is focussed on offering great career opportunities for candidates and delivering the best fit to our clients. Our suppliers also share our passion and we select them to ensure the theme is continued throughout our business.

We utilise progressive information systems and management processes to ensure that Imagine is the leading recruitment solution provider in the retail industry.

We possess an innovative and 'fresh faced' attitude to recruitment. A dynamic business, with European resourcing experience.
